This past year has seen many of us rely more on digital resources and virtual platforms in every way—Bolchazy-Carducci Publishers included! Our online interactive content, LUMINA, is now available as three distinct programs. The newly released LUMINA: Caesar and Vergil Selections (p. 3) promotes close reading of passages from both Caesar’s Commentarii de Bello Gallico and Vergil’s Aeneid. An accompaniment to Latin for the New Millennium, Levels 1 and 2, LUMINA for LNM (p. 5) offers a variety of guided activities and self-grading exercises. LUMINA: Artes Latinae (p. 3) is a comprehensive, standalone Latin course perfect for self-learners.

Looking for something more analog? The world of ancient Rome comes alive in the debut titles in two new series aimed at novice and intermediate Latin learners. The nonfiction reader Explore Latin: Avēs (p. 3) is an immersive introduction to the significance of birds in Roman culture and religion. This “pre-reader” pairs perfectly with the Encounter Latin novella, Augury Is for the Birds (p. 3). For those intending to read more extensively in Greek, Reading the Gospel of John: A Beginning presents the Greek text alongside notes and other supports that encourage rapid reading and comprehension (p. 9).

INTERACTIVE GUIDED ACTIVITIES FOR CAESAR AND VERGIL

LUMINA: Caesar and Vergil Selections

LUMINA: Caesar and Vergil Selections offers interactive exercises to accompany Caesar: Selections from his Commentarii de Bello Gallico and Vergil’s Aeneid: Selected Readings from Books 1, 2, 4, and 6 (p. 7). Hundreds of automatically-graded multiple choice questions promote close reading of all selections and provide students with immediate feedback. Copious free response questions ensure that students have the tools to thoroughly analyze Latin passages for grammar, style, and historical context. Practice exams, flashcards, and supplementary activities allow for further review and assessment.

Available at the student-friendly price of $10.00 per student!

A TIME-TESTED LATIN PROGRAM, UPDATED FOR TODAY’S STUDENT

LUMINA for Artes Latinae

For those intending to learn or review Latin on their own, at their own pace, Artes Latinae has long provided all the tools necessary to achieve a firm grasp of the language. Now, the self-teaching Latin course is available as a fully interactive online program, LUMINA for Artes Latinae. Receive immediate feedback while progressing through the audio- and image-enhanced frames—anytime, anywhere, on your internet-enabled device. This course is a great option for college-level summer study or course scheduling conflicts.

Each level of LUMINA for Artes Latinae is equal to a semester of college Latin study. Students who have finished Levels 1 and 2 are ready for reading courses.

Features • Learn Latin in a Moodle Classroom • Access all Artes Latinae resources online • Receive immediate feedback within a programmed learning framework • Track progress via a linked gradebook

Contact lumina@bolchazy.com to request a free six-unit demo of LUMINA: Artes Latinae.

IMMERSIVE INTRODUCTIONS TO ROMAN CULTURE—IN LATIN!

Designed to engage and delight novice and intermediate learners, these Latin readers use limited, high-frequency vocabulary and copious images to support comprehension. The debut titles in the Explore Latin and Encounter Latin series focus on the world of Roman augury—entirely in Latin! Forthcoming titles will address Roman theater, especially comedy and the plays of Plautus.

Latin for the New Millennium

by Milena Minkova and Terence Tunberg

Latin for the New Millennium, Levels 1 and 2, Second Edition Now Available

Latin for the New Millennium provides a firm foundation in Latin through its unique fusion approach to language learning. This comprehensive program combines the best practices of the reading method, the traditional grammar approach, and aural-oral techniques. With the introduction of a second edition for Levels 1 and 2, LNM has even more to offer: a richer focus on derivative studies, additional scaffolding activities, and redesigned teacher’s manuals. A bounty of extension and support materials accompany the program, created with today’s college student in mind.

For more LNM information, including a full list of substantive changes found in the second edition, see www.lnm.bolchazy.com.

Level 1—First Semester

ISBN 978-0-86516-809-1 • $59.00
A Level 1 Workbook is also available.

LNM 1 introduces Roman literature from its beginnings to Ammianus and Boethius and the major Roman authors, affording students the literary and historical context for future studies. Richly illustrated, LNM 1 presents the archaeological sites and material culture of the Romans.

Level 2—Second Semester

Student Text, Level 2
Second Edition
Milena Minkova and Terence Tunberg
Student Textbook: xxxix + 579 pp., 207 illustrations & 3 maps (2017) 7¾” x 10” Hardbound

Reading the Gospel of St. John in Greek
A Beginning
Norbert H. O. Duckwitz

Reading the Gospel of St. John in Greek: A Beginning, originally published by Caratzas (2002), empowers students at all levels to read and appreciate the Gospel of St. John and biblical Greek as a whole. The combination of text, vocabulary, and grammatical notes on one page enhances the reading experience for both practiced and beginning readers of Greek. Readers with training in classical, Homeric, or biblical Greek will find that the format enables rapid reading, comprehension, and retention. Readers with little to no Greek language training will be able to work directly with text from the New Testament, in conjunction with the introduction and appendix, in order to develop proficiency with biblical grammar, vocabulary, and idiom.

A Groundbreaking Textbook Now Back in Print

William Sanders Scarborough’s First Lessons in Greek
A Facsimile of the 1881 First Edition
William Sanders Scarborough; Foreword by Ward W. Briggs, Jr.; Introduction by Michele Valerie Ronnick

Ward W. Briggs, Jr., in his foreword, and Michele Valerie Ronnick, in her introduction, provide the historical and intellectual context for this pioneering work written by a nineteenth-century African American classicist. The introductory text includes Greek to English and English to Greek exercises that drill Greek grammar and vocabulary as well as readings from Xenophon’s Anabasis and Memorabilia.

Forthcoming: A Comprehensive Introduction to Biblical Greek

New Testament Greek: A Reading Course uses a well-scaffolded approach to learning biblical Greek. This all-encompassing introductory program ensures a strong foundation in the grammar and vocabulary needed to read the New Testament, as well as other ancient texts such as the Septuagint. From the beginning, students encounter carefully selected authentic readings that reinforce material presented in each chapter. Upon finishing the course, they will have read excerpts from more than 1,500 biblical verses!

This textbooks series will be available soon in two volumes with accompanying workbooks.
