Bolchazy-Carducci Publishers has long been committed to providing high quality Latin and Greek resources that engage every type of student. To address the ever-evolving needs of the classics classroom, we have continued to develop LUMINA—online interactive content available as three distinct programs. The recently released LUMINA: Caesar and Vergil Selections (p. 3) promotes close reading of passages from both Caesar’s Commentarii de Bello Gallico and Vergil’s Aeneid. An accompaniment to Latin for the New Millennium, Levels 1 and 2, LUMINA for LNM (p. 5) offers a variety of guided activities and self-grading exercises. LUMINA: Artes Latinae (p. 11) is a comprehensive, standalone Latin course perfect for self-learners.

The world of ancient Rome comes alive in two series aimed at novice and intermediate Latin learners. The nonfiction reader Explore Latin: Lūdī Scaenicī (p. 3) is an immersive introduction to the theater of ancient Greece and Rome. Explore Latin: Avēs delves into the significance of birds in Roman culture and religion. This “pre-reader” pairs perfectly with two companion novellas: Augury Is for the Birds and Under His Father’s Wing (p. 3).

Two forthcoming Greek texts will be a boon for beginners looking for an approachable introduction to the language. New Testament Greek: A Reading Course offers an all-encompassing, step-by-step method for learning biblical Greek (p. 9). Reading the Gospel of John: A Beginning presents the Greek text of the gospel alongside notes and other supports that encourage rapid reading and comprehension (p. 9).
New and Forthcoming

Interactive Guided Activities for Caesar and Vergil

Lumina: Caesar and Vergil Selections

Lumina: Caesar and Vergil Selections offers interactive exercises to accompany Caesar: Selections from his Commentarii de Bello Gallico and Vergil’s Aeneid: Selected Readings from Books 1, 2, 4, and 6 (p. 7). Hundreds of automatically-graded multiple choice questions promote close reading of all selections and provide students with immediate feedback. Copious free response questions ensure that students have the tools to thoroughly analyze Latin passages for grammar, style, and historical context. Practice exams, flashcards, and supplementary activities allow for further review and assessment.

Latin for the New Millennium

Latin for the New Millennium, Levels 1 and 2, Second Edition Now Available

Latin for the New Millennium provides a firm foundation in Latin through its unique fusion approach to language learning. This comprehensive program combines the best practices of the reading method, the traditional grammar approach, and aural-oral techniques. With the introduction of a second edition for Levels 1 and 2, LNM has even more to offer: a richer focus on derivative studies, additional scaffolding activities, and redesigned teacher’s manuals. A bounty of extension and support materials accompany the program, created with today’s college student in mind.

For more LNM information, including a full list of substantive changes found in the second edition, see www.lnm.bolchazy.com.

Level 1—First Semester

7¾” x 10” Spiral-bound
ISBN 978-0-86516-809-1 • $59.00
A Level 1 Workbook is also available.

LNM 1 introduces Roman literature from its beginnings to Ammianus and Boethius and the major Roman authors, affording students the literary and historical context for future studies. Richly illustrated, LNM 1 presents the archaeological sites and material culture of the Romans.

Level 2—Second Semester

Latin for the New Millennium
Student Text, Level 2
Second Edition
Milena Minkova and Terence Tunberg
Student Textbook: xxix + 579 pp., 207 illustrations & 3 maps

William Sanders Scarborough’s First Lessons in Greek

First Lessons in Greek is a groundbreaking textbook now back in print. Written by a nineteenth-century African American classicist, it provides a strong foundation in the grammar and vocabulary needed to read the New Testament, as well as other ancient texts such as the Septuagint. Upon finishing the course, students will have read excerpts from more than 1,500 biblical verses! This textbook series will be available soon in two volumes with accompanying workbooks. Level 1 will be released in 2022 with Level 2 to follow.

A Comprehensive Introduction to Biblical Greek uses a well-scaffolded approach to learning biblical Greek. This all-encompassing introductory program ensures a strong foundation in the grammar and vocabulary needed to read the New Testament, as well as other ancient texts such as the Septuagint. From the beginning, students encounter carefully selected authentic readings that reinforce material presented in each chapter. Upon finishing the course, they will have read excerpts from more than 1,500 biblical verses!

Reading the Gospel of St. John in Greek: A Beginning originally published by Caratzas (2002), empowers students at all levels to read and appreciate the Gospel of St. John and biblical Greek as a whole. The combination of text, vocabulary, and grammatical notes on one page enhances the reading experience for both practiced and beginning readers of Greek. Readers with training in classical, Homeric, or biblical Greek will find that the format enables rapid reading, comprehension, and retention. Readers with little to no Greek language training will be able to work directly with text from the New Testament, in conjunction with the introduction and appendix, in order to develop proficiency with biblical grammar, vocabulary, and idiom.

The series continues with Reading the Gospel of St. Matthew in Greek: A Beginning and Reading the Gospel of St. Mark in Greek: A Beginning, providing complete sets of the New Testament in Greek.

A Groundbreaking Textbook Now Back in Print that includes Greek to English and English to Greek exercises that drill Greek grammar and vocabulary as well as readings from Xenophon’s Anabasis and Memorabilia. A groundbreaking textbook now back in print.

Lumina Online Interactive

A Time-Tested Latin Program, Updated for Today's Student

Lumina: Artes Latinae

For those intending to learn or review Latin on their own, at their own pace, Artes Latinae has long provided all the tools necessary to achieve a firm grasp of the language. Now, the self-teaching Latin course is available as a fully interactive online program, Lumina: Artes Latinae. Receive immediate feedback while progressing through the audio- and image-enhanced frames—anytime, anywhere, on your internet-enabled device. This course is a great option for college-level summer study or course scheduling conflicts.

Each level of Lumina: Artes Latinae is equal to a semester of college Latin study. Students who have finished Levels 1 and 2 are ready for reading courses.

Features • Learn Latin in a Moodle Classroom • Access all Artes Latinae resources online • Receive immediate feedback within a programmed learning framework • Track progress via a linked gradebook

Contact lumina@bolchazy.com to request a free six-unit demo of Lumina: Artes Latinae.

Bolchazy-Carducci Publishers is pleased to provide a range of Latin content via Lumina interactive software.

For online guided activities to accompany LNM, Levels 1 and 2, see page 5.

For Lumina: Caesar and Vergil Selections, see page 3.
