Quiz Group – Questions Displayed One at a Time

Sometimes your instructor may choose to display a group of questions one at a time. Be sure to answer each question and click the Next button to advance to the next question. If you experience issues, please see the section Troubleshooting.

The screenshot shows a quiz question interface. At the top left, it says "Quiz Group" with a mouse cursor icon. Below that, the question value is "Value: 1". The question text is "What is the highly sensitive area of the retina?". There are three radio button options: "a. macula" (selected), "b. pupil", and "c. vitreous". A red box highlights the "a. macula" option, and a red callout bubble points to it with the text "Be sure to answer each question." Below the question, it says "# 1 / 3". At the bottom left, there is a "Next >" button, which is also highlighted with a red box. A red callout bubble points to this button with the text "Click the Next button."

This screenshot is identical to the one above, showing the same quiz question interface. It includes the "Quiz Group" header, "Value: 1", the question "What is the highly sensitive area of the retina?", the selected option "a. macula", and the "Next >" button. Red callout bubbles highlight the selected option and the "Next" button, both with the instruction "Be sure to answer each question." and "Click the Next button." respectively.

After answering the last question, be sure to click Next.
